Fees and payments

Fees for Services

You agree to pay to Simul8 any fees for each Service you purchase or use (including any overage fees), in accordance with the pricing and payment terms presented to you for that Service. Where applicable, you will be billed using the billing method you select through the Simul8 website. If you have elected to pay the fees by credit card, you represent and warrant that the credit card information you provide is correct and you will promptly notify Simul8 of any changes to such information. Fees paid by you are non-refundable, except as provided in these Terms or when required by law.

Subscriptions

Some of our Services are billed on a subscription basis. This means that you will be billed in advance on a recurring, periodic basis. Billing cycles are typically monthly or annual, depending on what subscription plan you select when purchasing a Subscription.

Your Subscription will automatically renew at the end of each billing cycle unless you cancel auto-renewal through our cancellation page, or by contacting our customer support team.

While we will be sad to see you go, you may cancel auto-renewal on your Subscription at any time, in which case your Subscription will continue until the end of that billing cycle before terminating.

You may cancel auto-renewal on your Subscription immediately after the Subscription starts if you do not want it to renew. If you cancel your Subscription, and re-start it within 7 days of cancellation, Simul8 reserves the right to charge an administration fee of $200/€175/£150, which will be charged to the payment method you have provided.
If you have purchased an annual subscription by alternative payment method such as bank transfer or check, subscriptions will automatically renew for additional periods equal to the expiring subscription term or one year (whichever is shorter), unless either party gives the other notice of non-renewal at least 30 days before the end of the relevant subscription term. Please see Suspension and Termination of Services for further information.

Taxes

Our prices listed do not include any taxes, levies, duties or similar governmental assessments of any nature such as value-added, sales, use or withholding taxes, assessable by any jurisdiction (collectively, “Taxes”) unless otherwise indicated.

You are responsible for paying Taxes associated with your purchase and keeping your billing information up to date.

(a) United States Sales Tax. If we have a legal obligation to pay or collect sales tax for which you are responsible, we will calculate the sales tax based upon the billing information we have about you and charge you that amount (which, if your billing information is incomplete or inaccurate, may be the highest prevailing rate then in effect), unless you provide us with a valid tax exemption certificate acceptable to the appropriate taxing authority.

- If you provide us with a tax exemption certificate, you represent and warrant that it accurately reflects your tax status and that you will keep such document current and accurate.
- If we subsequently determine in our sole discretion that your tax exemption document is valid, we will refund the sales tax collected.

(b) Non-United States Sales Tax. If applicable, we will charge you VAT, GST or any other sales, consumption or use taxes that arise in connection with your purchases of Simul8 products unless you provide us with a tax identification number that entitles you to an exemption, a valid tax exemption certificate or other documentary proof issued by an appropriate taxing authority that tax should not be charged. If you are located in a jurisdiction with multiple sales, consumption or use taxes, we may charge you the highest prevailing rate if your billing information is incomplete or inaccurate.

If you are required by law to withhold any Taxes from your payments to Simul8, you must provide Simul8 with an official tax receipt or other appropriate documentation to support such payments.

Price Changes

Simul8 may change the fees charged to you for the Services at any time, provided that, for Services billed on a subscription basis, the change will become effective only at the end of the then-current billing cycle of your subscription. Simul8 will provide you with advance notice of any change in fees. The pricing during any automatic renewal term will be the same as that during the immediately prior term unless we have given you written notice of a pricing increase at least 60 days before the end of that prior term for annual subscriptions, and 45 days for monthly subscriptions, in which case the pricing increase will be effective upon renewal and thereafter. Any such pricing increase will not exceed 7% of the pricing for the applicable Purchased Service in the immediately prior subscription.
If you wish to use paid parts of the Service (as set out on our website or in a quotation from us to you), you may be asked to provide payment information relevant to your purchase including, without limitation, a payment card number, expiration date, billing address, etc.

You represent and warrant that:

You agree to update us if those payment details change if you use of the Service includes recurring / subscription payments (as set out on our web site or in a quotation from Us to You).

Changes and Updates

Changes to Services

Simul8 may remove content from the Services it provides you at any time in our sole discretion, although we will endeavour to notify you before we do that if it materially impacts you and if practicable under the circumstances.

Downgrades

Downgrading your account plan may cause the loss of content, features, functionality, or capacity of your account.

We may reduce the level of access you have to the Service for reasons such as, but not limited to, expiration of a time period related to the relevant fee structure (as set out on our web site or in a quotation from Us to You). If we do this then Content that you have entered in to the Service may become unavailable to you and will be deleted from the Service and our backups.

We are constantly updating the Service. We may experience delays in updating information on the Service and in our advertising on other websites. Disclaimers and Limitations of Liability

We reserve the right, at our sole discretion, to modify or replace these Terms at any time. If, in our reasonable judgement, such a change is material and not either a requirement of law or force majeure, then existing Account Holders will be provided at least 30 days notice by email prior to any new terms taking effect during which time the previous Terms will continue to apply. By starting or continuing to access or use the Service after any revisions become effective, you agree to be bound by the revised terms.
